_ The Bill passed in the House of Assembly but lapsed in the Legislative Council when Parliament ended prior to the 2018 election.
2018 State Government Election. SACOME sought committment from all parties to re-introduce the Bill.

The new Liberal Government committed to review the proposed amendments and stakeholder feedback and the Statutes Amendment (Mineral Resources) Bill 2018 was introduced to Parliament.

The debate saw four Liberal Government MPs express opposition to the Bill and cross the floor to vote with the Labor Opposition to adjourn debate.
2019 Minister for Energy and Mining, the Hon. Dan van Holst Pellekaan confirmed that the progress of the Bill had stalled.
The Statutes Amendment (Mineral Resources) Bill is reintroduced to Parliament and passes the House of Assembly in July.
> "SACOME remains committed to ongoing reform of the Mining Act and will continue to engage with the Minister,DEM and all stakeholders to progress opportunities."

"This 47-year-old Act is the oldest piece of mining legislation in the country and requires modernisation."
