

Wombot's Great Adventure

SA
Edition

South
Australian Chamber of Mines & Energy

SACOME

Automation
Challenges

An illustration of a brown wombat on a yellow sandy beach. The wombat is looking towards the ocean where two blue dolphins are playing. One dolphin is in the water, and the other is jumping out of the water. The background is a blue sky and blue ocean.

Port Lincoln

Wombot started his adventure at Port Lincoln.
He waved hello to the dolphins as they played nearby.

Gawler Ranges National Park

Next, Wombot travelled to the Gawler Ranges. He waved hello to the lizards and bilbies.

Roxby Downs

Next, Wombot took a dip and waved hello to the miners in the town of Roxby Downs.

Naracoorte

Finally, Wombot decided to visit the limestone caves in Naracoorte. These caves are over 1 million years old. Look an animal fossil!

